Mr. Stoker,

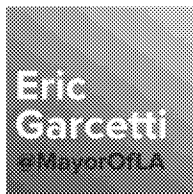

Thank you again for the time today to see progress and plans for action on the LA River and the Taylor Yard project. It was very nice to meet you, and we look forward to your next visit and to working together.

I'm copying senior Mayor staff and officials here who were unable to join us today but are also leaders on environmental issues for the City:

Barbara Romero, Deputy Mayor of Los Angeles, City Services
Kevin James, President of the Los Angeles Board of Public Works
Breelyn Pete, Mayor's Office, Chief of State & Federal Affairs,
Carol Armstrong, Executive Officer to Deputy Mayor Romero

Very best regards, and thanks again,
Mike
